

Naomi Hobbs

LLB (Hons)

Call 1992

Naomi has been a practicing Barrister called to the Bar in 1992. She specialises in Family and Immigration law. In particular Naomi has developed a practice in which she has gained considerable experience in all jurisdictions including the High Court and Appeal cases.

Naomi's practice includes Care Proceedings, cases involving children being removed from the jurisdiction to non-Hague Convention countries, Private Law and Domestic Violence cases.

Naomi is particularly experienced in assisting clients who suffer from mental health difficulties, cases in which same sex relationships may be a feature, discrimination cases and clients who have learning disabilities.

Naomi undertakes work from Local Authorities and private firms in respect of all aspects of her Family Law practice.

Practice Groups

Family, Immigration & Human Rights

Membership of Professional Organisations

Employment Law Bar Association

Family Law Bar Association